

Context Diagram of Movie Explorer

This diagram illustrates the system boundary and its interactions with external entities. The Movie Explorer System (centre) acts as an intermediary between Users, the TMDB External API, and the PostgreSQL database. The Administrator manages the system, while GitHub, Vercel, and Render support version control and deployment. Arrows indicate the direction and nature of data flow between entities.