

Deployment Diagram of Movie Explorer

This diagram maps the software components to physical infrastructure nodes and illustrates the communication pathways between them. The React frontend is served via Vercel's CDN, the Express backend runs as a web service on Render, and the PostgreSQL database is hosted on Neon's serverless platform. Numbered arrows indicate the sequence of key interactions during a typical user session.